

References for "No Medicare Prescription Drug Benefit from this Congress," by Deborah Hornstra

AARP Bulletin, "Can Drug Ads Lead to Unnecessary Spending?" March 2002.
Families USA, "President Would Force Seniors to Lose Choice of Doctors if they Want to Receive Prescription Drug Coverage," Press Release, January 28, 003.
Hightower, Jim, "Citizens for Better Medicare," The Hightower Lowdown, November 2000.
National Review, "Prescription for Disappointment," editorial, July 15, 2002.
New England Journal of Medicine, June 2000.

* * * *

Families USA, Common Cause, Public Citizen, Open Secrets, the Kaiser Family Foundation, the AARP and Member of Congress Bernie Sanders (I-VT) have undertaken studies of the pharmaceutical industry. The statistics cited in this piece were taken from publications available on their websites and on the archived website of former President Bill Clinton at <http://clinton2.nara.gov>.