

Sarah Lawrence College in

Application Instructions

The Sarah Lawrence College in Paris program is highly selective and the number of students is limited. The deadlines for application are October 15 for spring applicants and February 15 for the academic year program or fall applicants. Early notification of acceptance is available; students who need early notification should notify the College at the address below.

Your application has five parts:

- Part I Basic Application Form
- Part II Faculty Language Recommendation Form
(All studies are conducted in French)
- Parts IIIA and IIIB Two Academic Letters of Recommendation from faculty members of your choice
(and not from the same person who is to fill out the Language Recommendation)
- Part IV Study Abroad Approval Form
- Part V Official College Transcript
(Applicants should arrange to have an official transcript sent to the address below)

Students wishing to be considered for a scholarship from the Marguerite Baratin Fund need to attach a letter in support of their request.

All applications must be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of $35.00.

Please mail your application by October 15 (spring applicants) or by February 15 (academic year program or fall applicants) to:

Please explain:

The candidate will be required to follow lectures at a French university and to comprehend and discuss orally or in writing matters of content, style, and interpretation for French instructors of seminars. As students live on their own in Paris, the success of the candidate in this program depends not only on a facility for thinking, writing, and speaking in the French language, but also on a certain level of maturity. Please give us your comments on the abilities of this candidate in these areas, as well as the results of any significant examinations in French.
